CANAL TRUSTEES ON THE CUMMINGS.

The Board of Trustees of the Illinois and Michigan Canal, in session in this city yesterday, directed their collectors along the line to take no more of the "stump-tail" currency for tolls or other dues. They have $30,000 on deposit in this city, and though willing to pay the current rates of discount (twenty-five per cent) to convert it, they succeeded in getting no more than par bill on New York, and that for only [illegible]. Which being the case, they have put down the gate, and not another stump-tail note goes through the lock. The currency taxed on the Free State bonds is still received.

ARREST OF A TRAITOR

The arrest of Winans, of Baltimore, by the officers of the United States, on a charge of treason, is an event which is very significant of the intentions of the Administration toward men of his class. He is immensely wealthy, and a man of large influence. His money and his personal favor have been freely used to embarrass the Government. Now let him bide the consequences.

BRECKINRIDGE.

The report which comes to us of the speech of Mr. Anderson, at Harrisburg, yesterday, in which he is made to say that Jno C. Breckinridge would join him in Cincinnati for the purpose of entering the field to be received with many grains of allowance. That man Breckinridge has no one of the most malignant, and because making dangerous of secessionists. That he may confess his sin in putting down by the heel those rampant disloyalty is he steadily encouraged, is evidence that he is a greater villain than the world has yet laid him on villainy for. Even those who believe him a villain, or a villain who can be bought, or a villain who will betray the Union cause only to betray. We are sure that the telegraph is in error, or that Mr. Anderson is mistaken.

HOME COLONELS.

Capt. C. C. Marsh has been elected Colonel of the Third District Regiment now in camp at Joliet; and Thos. J. Turner, of Freeport, Colonel of the Regiment at Dixon. In the last regiment there was an animated contest between Turner and Capt. Hurlbut, of McHenry, who would make, if he is not already, a gallant and efficient commander. Col. Isaac is already known to our city readers as the likeing and honorable commander with our Light Guard in its palmy days.

Harper's Ferry.

A gentleman who spent all of Monday at Harper's Ferry, passed through this city last evening, and has favored us with the following items of information gleaned from him that [illegible] are about seven thousand troops there, and not more are hourly arriving. They are well armed, and from the forces of the Government, and are industriously preparing to receive it. They are throwing up earth works on the Maryland side of the river, constantly employing 100 to 200 men in that duty. The railroad bridge is almost and ready to be blown up on the approach of the foe, and the side-walk, as our readers will remember, is of cast plate iron, and the passage of the road will [illegible] bagging the last. Provisions, bags rocks have been so skilfully piled that they may be toppled over by the strength of a single man, and thrown down upon whatever may be passing beneath. The attack is expected from the direction of the Relay House [illegible] that point most of the defensive works aimed. Our informant, roaming leisurely, ascended several elevated points in the vicinity, and had a full and perfect view of all that is going on.

The machinery at the armory is being moved as rapidly as possible to Staunton, where it is to go anew, and the manufacture of arms continued. Many of the old workmen left in the vicinity and they are being employed in the service, some by promises made by Scott. It is said that 15,000 troops will concentrate on that spot; and it is also said, that Lieut. Fauntleroy, of the regular army, has left the Ferry with a force and taken possession of Gordon, the terminus of the Manassas Virginia road [illegible] Baltimore and Ohio. The road is said to be supplied with transmitting apparatus [illegible] being their greatest want. Small arms and field pieces are abundant. Provisions also looking. The droves of cattle [illegible] will furnish meat yet a while, but [illegible] of breadstuff is exceedingly scant. [illegible] of the army was lax, the troops [illegible] to make in, boasting what they lack [illegible] was carefully searched and [illegible] but as he had taken the precaution to rid himself of all papers [illegible] reveal his sympathy with the [illegible] and as he had all secret passages in his army, he was suffered to remain. All trains passing through are carefully searched, and to the knowledge of the writer those whose rampant disloyalty [illegible] are steadily encouraged, is evidence that he is a greater villain than the world has yet laid on villainy for. Even those who believe him a villain, or a villain who can be bought, or a villain who will betray the Union cause only to betray. We are sure that the telegraph is in error, or that Mr. Anderson is mistaken.

THE CITY.

LATE DELIVERY.—Our paper was delivered at every late yesterday morning to city subscribers, and may this morning. But after Saturday we expect to have our new fast press running, when the late delivery will cease, and subscribers in the city will have nothing to complain of on that score.

APPOINTMENT OF A DEPUTY.—U. S. Marshal Jones has appointed Purnell Muncus, Esq., of Waukegan, a deputy U. S. Marshal.

FOUND.—Thirty-six cases in yesterday's Police Court. All of them light, and more than the average light.

BUILDING IMPROVEMENT.—The ground is being cleared for the immediate erection of a substantial business block on the corner of Madison and Dearborn street.

MORTALITY FOR APRIL.—The number of deaths for the month of April, 1861, has been as follows: West division, 45; South do., 44; North do., 36; not stated, 1. Total, 126.

JUDGMENT AGAINST THE CITY.—A verdict of $2000 has been obtained against the city, in the Circuit Court, in favor of N. S. Higgins, for a broken arm, resulting from defective pavement.

SCAMMON'S M. B. SOCIETY.—The members of this Society are requested to notice that important business demands their attendance at the meeting this (Thursday) evening at 7½ o'clock.

ARRIVALS FROM CAMP YATES.—Orderly Sergeant Bersing of the Washington Light Cavalry arrived here yesterday, having in charge sixteen invalids from Camp Yates at Springfield.

HARBOR SWINDLE.—Seventy-five dollars in Eastern money were stolen a few nights since from the cabin of the schooner Boston. You might know it was Eastern money for the meanest of the thieving community are becoming shy of "Stumptail."

THE DAY OF PENTECOST.—Yesterday and to-day our very numerous Israelite fellow-citizens are celebrating the Feast of Pente cost. The devout of these religionists close their respective places of business on these days, and will attend to their service in the Synagogue.

BURGLARY.—A night or two since, several dwellings in the vicinity of Jefferson and West Harrison street, were entered and a general ransack made. The booty was made up from pantries. From one house a portmonnaie was taken.

MESSRS. BOWEN BROTHERS.—We call attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Bowen Brothers, Nos. 74 and 76 Lake Street. The position of this prominent house thus taken on the currency question is pioneer, but our business community are closely behind them in such action.

COW THIEF ARRESTED.—A suspicious looking fellow offering a cow for sale on suspicious terms, was arrested in the West Division by a citizen named P. H. Miller, at 195 Randolph street, who has the cow in his stable. The animal is a dark red cow, with calf. The supposed thief is in jail.

THE "FINE CRAVATS" ABOUT AGAIN.—Mr. Wm. P. Cardwell was robbed of a pocket book containing $70 in money at the military funeral on Sunday. Mrs. E. E. Gulliver had her pocket picked while standing on Lake street, on Thursday evening, about 7 o'clock. The pocket book stolen contained about $70 in money; one note of $200; three certificates of deposit on the Kane County Bank for $500 each; and two certificates of $25 each on the same bank. Other robberies of a similar nature have been committed within a few days.

A SHREWD TRANSACTION.—A firm of the merchants and business public signed the agreement with the bankers, one man who signed it, had $25,000 in stump tail on deposit with his banker. The undersigning at the time being that the banks were not to charge their customers more than ten per cent, he called on his banker for $22,500 of greenbacks and got it. He then took his certificate of exchange and deposited it at the Merchant's Loan and Trust, selling it for six per cent, premium in currency of the short list. This was sharp practice, but hardly doing the fair thing by his former banker.

"Union, God and Liberty."

H. M. Higgins, our enterprising music publisher, has just issued, in handsome style, a piece of patriotic music, the words by a Chicago poet, Alvin Robinson, late of the Home and School Journal, and music by S. Wesley Martin, entitled "Union, God and Liberty." We have heard it sung by a single voice, accompanied by a piano, and should the beauty and effectiveness of the piece be increased by a full chorus and orchestra, all we can say is the "The Star Spangled Banner" and other national airs must look to their laurels ere they are eclipsed. The ahoot is wrought out with an elegantly illuminated title, done in the best style of New York colored lithograph. We can speak in unqualified praise of the words, the music, the publisher. Mr. Higgins is now ready to receive orders for this and another piece published simultaneously with it, entitled "Our National Flag," words by W. Gilles; music by P. J. Walpole.

Pure Water in Camps.

There is confessedly well nigh as much poison to be encountered by our soldiers at Cairo as camp, as on the battle field. There is a total lack of pure water, that which is used being dipped up from the river and siltlowed to settle in barrels before drinking.

We are glad to learn that a proposition is being entertained between the Commissary Department, and Mr. Kedzie of Rochester, whose Filters are in approved use through the country, to erect several large Filters at the camps, especially for soldiers use. Mr. Kedzie's Filter, it may be said without invidiousness, is the best and indeed almost the only one in use that is a perfect filter. It is proposed to make three of the capacity of a hogshead, for which reason they are to be built at Cairo.

This important sanitary feature will, we trust, be secured as promptly as possible, and we learned from Mr. Kedzie's agents, Messrs. A. R. & G. H. Miller, at No. 205 and 207 State street, that a decision will be arrived at in a day or two and the work done at once. The presence of Mr. Kedzie in this city as above will be of advantage to those having his Filters that need repairs and new filling. For the sake of our volunteers in camp, we trust this humane measure to supply them with pure water may exceed at once.

Meeting of the Chicago Academy of Science.

The regular meeting of the Chicago Academy of Science was held at their rooms, corner of Lake and Clark streets, on Tuesday evening. The President, Dr. Stenmetz, in the chair. The Curator, Mr. J. M. Wordworth, called the attention of the members to the large addition of specimens which he obtained last winter from the collections of the Smithsonian Institution, at Washington. Among the valuable gifts received from the Smithsonian were 300 species of birds, represented by some 300 skins; mammalia, by 100 skins; 75 bird's nests, with 170 eggs; 150 fishes; 150 species of shelly types of Genera; 70 species of corals; corals and star fishes, mostly types. The whole Smithsonian donation numbers some 800 species, illustrated by about 2,000 specimens. A new Arctic loon, Columbus Adamsii, obtained at Big Island, Great Slave Lake, by Robert Hendersont, attracted much attention. The collection of the Academy is enriched by several other specimens lately received from Mr. Kennicott, who is now pursuing his researches in the Russian Territory, on the north-west coast of America.

Dr. Holmyth has contributed 120 species of Illinois Coleoptera, and Prof. McChesney and Capt. Bodine, of Galena, have also made valuable additions to the collection of the Academy.

Twenty bound and 17 unbound volumes have been added to the library by the Smithsonian Institute; U. S. Coast Survey; Dr. Newberry of Cleveland; Prof. Gill of Washington; and the Curator, J. M. Wordworth.

The Smithsonian Institution promises to add largely to their donations at last at their own collections come in. The Academy has already a most valuable collection, in most of not all the kingdoms of nature; but their specimens made from stare for the most of want to be made them. Of course it is now the time to set out the pond lily and make it a specialty. Of the thousand dollars, more or less, that would do honor to the city

We give the names of companies in the absence of our reporter's list. They comprise nine hundred men. Upon finding that they would have no opportunity for enrollment in the first or second quota of our State troops, a tender of service was sent directly to Washington, and there pressed strongly in the War office.

The regiment was accepted contingent to the action of the Sturges Rifle Corps, already accepted and awaiting they being mustered into U. S. service. The acceptance of this corps is on their vote of willingness so modified as to accept the full regiment of ten companies from this city, mustering them into service at the same time.

Up to last evening the Rifle corps retained an unwillingness to be enrolled in this Regiment, and as the matter stands, their consent must be obtained or the Regiment fall. We sincerely trust this will not be the case, even if it be necessary for a modification of the form of acceptance at the War Department, by its accepting the ten companies as filed and then forming them into a Regiment. If the action of the Sturges Rifles is based upon an unwillingness to abandon their cherished plan of service at or near Washington, and the feeling that a single company is more likely to be ordered thither than a full regiment, we are confident that they are acting under a mistake. It is quite improbable that any troops from the West will be ordered to the seaboard States. There will be for the patriot soldiery of the West quite enough to do in the Valley of the Mississippi. Knowing the quality and temper of these ten companies, we sincerely hope to see them enrolled as a Chicago Regiment for the war.

Action of Pennsylvania Citizens.

A meeting was held last evening at the Tremont House, by the citizens of Pennsylvania resident in Chicago, to present some suitable testimonial of their esteem to Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of the State of Pennsylvania, in view of the patriotic stand taken by him in the present emergency in our national affairs.

On motion of Mr. J. E. Austin, of the Illinois Central R. R., Mr. D. W. Rose of Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago R. R., was called to the chair, and Mr. J. F. Brady nominated as Secretary. A series of resolutions was then presented and unanimously adopted (we will publish them in an early edition), together with a vote of the meeting to present Governor Curtin with a gold mounted cane made from wood taken from Fort Dearborn.

The President appointed as a committee of presentation, Mr. J. B. Austin, John A. Ross, Esq., Mr. C. H. Walker, Michael Tuteen, Esq., and Dr. J. H. Hahn; also as a committee on resolutions, Dr. J. H. Rauch, John C. Miller, Esq., and Mr. David Wilkins.

The meeting then adjourned with three cheers for the noble Governor of the "old Keystone, and three more for Pennsylvania's gallant son, George B. McClellan, Major General of the North-West.

DRY GOODS CLERKS EARLY CLOSING ASSOCIATION.—At a meeting of dry goods clerks of this city, held at Lloyd's, on Saturday evening, May 11th, at 8.30 P. M., the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

And Whereas, The experience of the trade in all the large cities of the East, as well as European countries, is such as to warrant us in stating, that the hours of business adopted, the employed as well as the trading public, are better served by having shorter hours; therefore

Be it Resolved, That while we disclaim all intent or purpose of interference in the slightest manner with the legitimate and just prerogative of employers, we herewith form ourselves into an Association, to be known and designated as the "Dry Goods Clerks' Early Closing Association of Chicago," for the aims and purposes the procuring of shorter hours of business in the leading Dry Goods Stores of this city, together with the social, intellectual and moral advancement of ourselves and associates.

Resolved, That each and every member of the "Dry Goods Clerks' Early Closing Association of Chicago" pledge themselves individually and collectively, to use all fair and honorable means to accomplish the objects aforesaid.
